Augusta Endodontic Center receives Synchrony Pillars Project Award. Shares prize with four local organizations.

Augusta, GA – Augusta Endodontic Center today announced it won a Synchrony Pillars Project award from Synchrony, a premier consumer financial services company. Since 2016, Synchrony’s small business awards program has honored small business owners who have supported their communities through times of change.

Augusta Endodontic Center received a $10,000 prize.

“It’s an honor to accept the Synchrony Pillars Project award on behalf of our talented and hard-working team,” said Manny Ngoh, DMD, Augusta Endodontic Center. “We plan to share this award with the Dental Assisting Program at Augusta Tech, Dental Hygiene program at Augusta University, Heritage Academy and the Dental Clinic at Christ Community Health.”

The awards will be presented to these organizations at a special ceremony today, Tuesday December 8, at 12:30 pm at Augusta Endodontic Center.
