Julie Langham Appointed as Interim Vice President for the Augusta Technical College Economic Development Division

Mrs. Langham's appointment is effective April 1, 2023.

Augusta, GA - April 3, 2023

Augusta Technical College has appointed Mrs. Julie Langham as the Interim Vice President for Economic Development.

Langham holds a Bachelor's degree in Psychology from Augusta University and a Master's degree in Higher Education and Administration from Troy University. She has worked in higher education for 23 years and has been with the College since 2002.

Langham currently serves as the college's Dean for Academic Affairs. In this role she collaborates with all academic schools to bring new credit programs to the College. Mrs. Langham is responsible for oversight of the Distance Education Department, Library Services, apprenticeships, articulation and transfer agreements, and the Department of Juvenile Justice CTAE program.

"The educational services offered at Augusta Technical College are essential to our communities and extends beyond the traditional classroom. I am excited to apply my experience with our academic programs to enhance our efforts in lifelong learning and workforce development," stated Mrs. Langham.

Mrs. Langham, who has served in both academic and student affairs at the college, and as dean since 2013 will support the Offices of Continuing Education and Adult Education. The Economic Development Division provides training and services to support lifelong learning and local workforce development.

"Augusta Tech is fortunate to have Mrs. Julie Langham on our team. Her versatility serving in multiple roles that directly connect with business and industry throughout the region makes her uniquely qualified to step in this important role," stated College President Dr. Jermaine Whirl.

Langham serves on many College and community civic groups and boards including Rotary Club of Thomson (former president), WorkSource East Central Georgia Board, UGA Archway Executive Board, United Way Board of Directors, Partners for Success (2021 Chairwoman), Columbia County CTAE Advisory Board, and is a Leadership McDuffie Graduate.

Langham is married to Van Langham of Thomson, GA, and they have one adult son.
